

Asking for Information (Question Words)

Who?

Who are you?
Who is at the door?

Where?

Where do you live?
Where are you from?

How?

How are you?
How old ...?
How tall ...?
How long ...?
How far ...?
How often ...?
How much ...?
How many ...?

Why?

Why are you late?
Why do you work so hard?

What?

What is your name?
What are you doing?

When?

When is your birthday?
When is the party?

Whose?

Whose is it?
Whose car is this?

Exercise

Change these sentences into question form using the question words presented on the top of this page.

- 1- Helen eats fish. What does Helen eat?
- 2- I want some fish. What do you want?
- 3- They go to the theatre. Where do they go?
- 4- We eat soup. What do you eat?
- 5- Peter and Henry play hockey. What do they play?
- 6- I walk along the river. Where do you walk?
- 7- He likes fish. What does he like?
- 8- I drink coffee. What do you drink?
- 9- My brother drives slowly. How does your brother drive?
- 10- Paul and John play very well. How do they play?
- 11- The dog wants some meat. What does the dog want?
- 12- He practises English and Spanish. What does he practise?
- 13- Marie works on Monday. When does Marie work?
- 14- We drink cold milk. What do you drink?
- 15- Because there is a monster. Why are you screaming?
- 16- Peter swims very well. How does Peter swim?
- 17- Alice sings every night. When does Alice sing?

