

LET'S DISCOVER NEW QUESTION WORDS

1. Read the questions and write a short answer. If you don't know it, look it up on the Internet. (continued)

- i) How old is Québec City? _____
- j) How many letters can you count in the word dragonfly? _____
- k) How tall are you? _____

2. Look at the incomplete questions. With each answer, find and write the appropriate missing question word.

- a) _____ is the movie? Two hours and 10 minutes.
- b) _____ is your brother? One metre and 52 centimetres.
- c) _____ money can you win in the lottery? 12 million dollars.
- d) _____ is your hair? About shoulder length.
- e) _____ animals can you find in this zoo? About 300 animals.
- f) _____ is your mother? She is 36.
- g) _____ do you think you can finish your exam? Quickly! Give me 5 minutes.
- h) _____ is an elephant? It is bigger than a rhino.
- i) _____ is the Eiffel Tower? It is 324 metres tall.
- j) _____ can you run 100 metres? It takes me 13 seconds.
- k) _____ flour do you need to make pancakes? 2 cups.

3. CHALLENGE TIME! Prepare six questions for your friends. Use the how + adjective structure to write well-built questions.

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____
- d) _____
- e) _____
- f) _____

