

WORDS THAT SOUND OR LOOK ALIKE

REVIEW TIME

A Look at each set of words. Write a sentence with each that demonstrates the difference between the two.

|         |  |
|---------|--|
| Know    | I know a lot about the solar system.                               |
| No      |  |
| Weather | The weather today is gorgeous, the sun is shining.                 |
| Whether |  |
| Accept  | Whether you like it or not, you need to clean your room.           |
| Except  |  |
| Hear    | Are you ready to accept the fact that you need to clean your room? |
| Here    |  |
| Than    | I love every pizza topping except olives.                          |
| Then    |  |
| Dinner  | I hear music playing in the room.                                  |
| Diner   |  |
| Your    | Get over here! You did not do the dishes!                          |
| You're  |  |
| Threw   | I am better than you in Math.                                      |
| Through |  |
| Your    | How about we eat pizza and then have ice cream?                    |
| You're  |  |
| Threw   | What are we having for dinner? I hope it's hot dogs!               |
| Through |  |
| Your    | Your tea is getting cold!  |
| You're  |  |
| Threw   | You're my best friend!   |
| Through |  |
| Threw   | He threw the ball into my face!                                    |
| Through |  |
| Through | Let's go through the tunnel instead of over the bridge!            |

